

Do you dream of a career in Agricultural management

Bachelor in Agricultural Management may be an option for you

We are searching for students:

- With personality and with engagement in the agricultural sector
- Having ambitions and motivation for education in management
- With a bachelor degree within Agronomy or Veterinary science or a AP degree in Agro Business
- With good English skills – the language is English – both during the education in Denmark as well as at the company

Bachelor in Agricultural Management is:

- Formal management training during a 1,5 year (90 ECTS) in Denmark
- Practical training in a large international operating enterprise after one year of formal management education
- Mentor -relation to a manager from an agricultural company during the education

Practical training partners:

Dan-Slovakia and FirstFarms are companies cooperating with Business Academy Aarhus in the management training program. Dan-Slovakia and FirstFarms are leading international agricultural enterprises in Slovakia producing pigs and milk, respectively. They offer the location for practical training of students as part of the Agricultural Management program.

www.firstfarms.com

www.dsa.sk

Business Academy Aarhus develops and offers practice-orientated higher education programmes and with more than 4,200 full-time students, 3,400 part-time students.

Visit our homepage www.baaa.dk/dam to find further information and a link to make your application for the program.