

Corporate Governance in FirstFarms A/S

- in accordance to The Danish Financial Statements Act § 107b

In accordance with "Recommendations for good Corporate Governance", composed in 2005 and latest revised and updated in November 2017 by the Committee for good Corporate Governance, a listed company shall explain how it complies with the recommendations based on the "comply-or-explain" principle. In FirstFarms this means that the company explains how the recommendations are interpreted and complied with and explains if the recommendations are deviated. The recommendations supplement the regulation, in relation to company- and exchange law, for Danish companies, who have shares to trade on a regulated market.

Each annual report from FirstFarms contains a section on "Corporate Governance", in which the company briefly explains its deviations from the recommendations. Additionally, this Corporate Governance in FirstFarms A/S is always available at www.firstfarms.com.

"Recommendations for good Corporate Governance" are divided into 5 main sections:

1. The company's communication and interaction with the company's investors and other interested parties
2. The roles and responsibilities of the Board of Directors
3. Composition and organisation of the Board of Directors
4. Remuneration of the Board of Directors and the Management
5. Presentation of accounts, risk management and audit

Corporate Governance – or company management – is the company's overall framework and guidelines, which determines its goals and the Management's tasks and business opportunities. FirstFarms generally complies with the Committee's recommendations and with this review of the specific recommendations the company is seeking to enable shareholders and other interested parties to gain an insight into how Corporate Governance is implemented in FirstFarms.

The statement is updated March 2021

1. The company's communication and interaction with the company's investors and other interested parties
1.1. Dialogue between company, shareholders and other interested parties
1.1.1. It is recommended, that the board of directors ensure ongoing dialogue between the company and its shareholders, so that the shareholders gain relevant insight into the company and in order for the board of directors to be aware of the shareholders' views, interests and opinions in relation to the company.	Complies			FirstFarms has established frameworks, which encourage shareholders into a dialogue with the company's Management and mutual dialogue between the shareholders. Connected with this, the company has placed particular focus on IT, since this eases communication and at the same time produces significant cost savings. Consequently, the company has opted electronic communication as its vehicle in its Articles of Association and all information to the shareholders is therefore sent using this medium. Consequently, on the company's website, www.firstfarms.com, visitors can subscribe to a news service, whereby all information sent from the company can be received by e-mail. If shareholders are already registered using their e-mail address, subscription to the news service is unnecessary as these shareholders will automatically receive information from the company. In addition to the option to receive information from the company, all interested parties can read the Chairman's report from the annual general meeting on the website. The company practises

				openness in respect of its activities and plans, for which reason the company has adopted an information and communication policy, including formulation of an Investor Relations policy. Amongst other things the company has decided to publish its company announcements in Danish and English, and to make these available on the company's website as well as to release them into the public domain within Denmark and the EU. FirstFarms publishes company announcements at least four times annually, by virtue of the fact that quarterly statements are prepared. The company also holds own investor meetings or participates in such when relevant. FirstFarms is a SmallCap company, traded on the Nordic Exchange in Copenhagen (NASDAQ Copenhagen A/S). FirstFarms has an Investor Relations Manager, and a special section on the website containing information pertinent to investors. Under the section "Investor Relations" visitors can view developments in share prices, see previous company announcements and a financial calendar, as well as being able to contact the Investor Relations department etc.
1.1.2. It is recommended, that the board of directors adopt policies on the company's relationship with its stakeholders, including shareholders and that the board of directors ensure that the interests of the stakeholders are respected in accordance to the company policies.	Complies			The company has adopted an Investor Relation policy, which seeks to ensure a constructive dialogue with shareholders and other interested parties through its investor relation work. The company therefore participates in events involving unions, organisations and other groups, where presentations from FirstFarms can contribute to increasing knowledge of the com- pany and its business areas. In addition to participating in investor meetings, the company has given its shareholders the opportunity to participate in shareholder trips, where the investors are given the opportunity to see the company's activities and to obtain information about the various business branches of the management in the respective farms. It is FirstFarms' opinion that these user-paid shareholder trips can provide a good impression of the company's activities, in the same way as it can contribute to a dialogue between the company and the shareholders and among shareholders. Information about forthcoming trips is published on the website www.firstfarms.com and via direct information to shareholders registered by name with the company using their email address in the company's register of shareholders.

1.1.3. It is recommended , that the company publishes quarterly reports.	Complies			FirstFarms publishes quarterly reports.
1.2. General meeting
1.2.1. It is recommended , that in organising the company's general meeting, the board of directors plans the meeting to support active ownership.	Complies			FirstFarms uses the general meeting as a tool to enable shareholders to have their say and their participation is encouraged to increase active ownership. The company is therefore seeking to ensure that all members of the board of directors and the management are present at the general meeting. The company's website has a special section about past and forthcoming general meetings in FirstFarms together with associated material.

Recommendation	The company complies	The company complies partly	The company does not comply	Explanation on complies partly/does not comply to the recommendation
1.2.2. It is recommended , that proxies or votes by post for the general meeting allow shareholders to consider each individual item on the agenda.	Complies			FirstFarms gives the shareholders possibility to cast vote regarding the individual items on the agenda for the general meeting on the company shareholder portal or by post to the undertaker of the company's register of shareholders.
1.3. Takeover offers
1.3.1. It is recommended , that the company sets up contingency procedures in the event of takeover offers, from the time that the board of directors has reason to believe that a takeover offer will be made. The contingency procedures should establish that the board of directors should not without the acceptance of the general meeting, attempt to counter the takeover offer by making decisions which, in reality, prevent the shareholders from deciding on the takeover offer themselves.	Complies			In case of proposal of takeover offer, the board of directors will refrain from undertaking dispositions, which actually screen the shareholders from deciding about the takeover attempt and approve it on a general meeting. This will be in force from the time the board of directors learns about the proposal of the takeover offer, as the shareholders shall have an actual possibility to decide whether they wish to surrender their shares in FirstFarms on the proposed terms.
2. The tasks and responsibilities of the board of directors
2.1. Overall tasks and responsibilities
2.1.1. It is recommended , that at least once annually the board of directors consider the matters that should be included in the boards' performance of its work.	Complies			The board of directors' tasks and composition are described in the company's order of business, which also stipulates the division of responsibilities, risk management etc. The order of business is reviewed once a year by the board of directors in order to ensure that it remains an effective and operational tool for use in resolving its assignments and thus the order of business is continuously adjusted to the company's needs.

2.1.2. It is recommended, that at least once annually, the board of directors consider the overall strategy of the company with a view to ensuring value creation in the company.	Complies			The board of directors continually evaluates the company's measures with regard to ensuring that the activities remain within the frameworks of the primary objectives, investment strategies and -criteria which are set following thorough consideration by the board of directors at least once annually. Meetings in the board of directors are held at least once quarterly. The board of directors is responsible for appointment of a qualified management team, and continually, and at least once a year, evaluates this work in accordance with the guidelines set. The board of directors shall be an active sparring partner for the management in respect of strategic and operational measures; similarly, the board of directors is a supervising body in respect of the management and the company. On a monthly basis the board of directors receives information from the management in respect of events in the company with a focus on those themes which may have an effect on the company's financial situation in both the long and short term. To ensure the value creation in the company, the board of directors evaluates continually, and at least once a year, together with the management how the overall strategy contributes to the purpose. At least once a year, the board of directors also investigates how the necessary competences and financial resources are safeguarded to enable FirstFarms to achieve its strategic goals.
2.1.3. It is recommended, that the board of directors ensure that the company has a capital and share structure which supports that the strategy and long-term value creation of the company are in the best interest of the shareholders and the company, and that the board of directors	Complies			The board of directors continually, and at least once a year, assesses whether the company's capital and share structure is in the interest of the shareholders and the company, and a report is issued annually in consideration thereof. 2.1.4. It is recommended , that the board of directors annually review and approve guidelines for the management; this includes establishing requirements for the managements reporting to the board of directors.	Complies			The board of directors annually reviews the established guidelines for the managements work, reporting etc.
2.1.5. It is recommended , that at least once annually, the board of directors discuss the composition, developments, risks and succession plans of the management.	Complies			The board of directors continually, and at least once a year, discusses the composition of the management.
2.2. Corporate social responsibility
2.2.1. It is recommended , that the board of directors adopt policies on corporate social responsibility.	Complies			FirstFarms has an open policy in respect of the company's policies towards all parties. The company's Corporate Governance, which is updated annually, is together with other information available on the website; similarly, FirstFarms' Management has adopted an information and communication policy, which ensures that the company safeguards its relationship with the company's stakeholders. Furthermore, FirstFarms' position regarding Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR), animal welfare and environmental policies, etc. is also available on the company's website www.firstfarms.com. The company's policy regarding Corporate Social Responsibility is also to be open minded in respect to the local community and partners in the countries in which the company invests in agriculture. FirstFarms is open for dialogue with the surrounding community in the area in which the investments are made. The company also has versions of the website in the local language.

A full version of the website can be found in Danish and English versions. FirstFarms uses its website to pass on information about the company's philosophy, values, aims, attitude to animal welfare, etc.
2.3. Chairman and vice-chairman of the board of directors
2.3.1. It is recommended , that a vice-chairman of the board of directors is appointed, who will assume the responsibilities of the chairman in the event of the chairman's absence, and who will also act as effective sparring partner for the chairman.	Complies			FirstFarms' board of directors has appointed a vice-chairman for the board.
2.3.2. It is recommended , that if the board of directors, in exceptional cases, asks the chairman of the board of directors or other board members to perform special activities for the company, including briefly participating in the day-to-day management, a board resolution to that effect should be passed to ensure that the board of directors maintains its independent, general management and control function. Resolutions on the chairman's or other board members' participation in day-to-day management and the expected duration hereof should be publicly announced.	Complies			If the chairman of the board of directors or other board members in exceptional cases shall undertake operating tasks in the company, including participating in the daily management of the company, a Board decision hereof must be available to ensure, that the control function of the Board of Directors is maintained. It is informed in a company announcement about the Chairman of the Board of Directors' or other board members participating in the daily management and the expected duration of this.
3. Composition and organisation of the board of directors
3.1. Composition

Recommendation	The company complies	The company complies partly	The company does not comply	Explanation on complies partly/does not comply to the recommendation
3.1.1. It is recommended, that the board of directors annually evaluate and in the management comments accounts for <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the competencies that it must have to best perform its tasks, • the composition of the board of directors, and • the special competencies of each member. 	Complies			FirstFarms emphasises that the board of directors all in all has a considerable experience and diversity within the company's business area – operation of agriculture in selected Central- and Eastern European countries. The company has decided not to have specific goals for diversity in the board of directors, as it in the company's assessment is not suitable for the operation and development of the company. The company explains in the management comments which competencies the board of directors must have and the members' special competencies. FirstFarms has a target that at least 25 percent or at least one member of the company's Board of Directors shall be of the underrepresented gender before 2023. In 2020, FirstFarms achieved this target, as two new members entered FirstFarms' Board of Directors and one of them being female. Even without setting a new, higher target for the underrepresented gender, the company will strive to increase the proportion of the underrepresented gender in the Board of Directors. Members of the board of directors may not undertake tasks or through investments be involved in companies which directly or indirectly compete with FirstFarms' activities. Once a year in connection with the annual evaluation of the function and competence of the board of directors, it is evaluated whether the individual member's other activities have a character or an extent that makes the general competence to act, in correlation to the member's function as member of the board of directors, fulfilled.

Recommendation	The company complies	The company complies partly	The company does not comply	Explanation on complies partly/does not comply to the recommendation
				If FirstFarms enters into a financial contract with closely related parties or companies controlled by or under the influence of member of the board of directors, such contractual relationships shall always be based on the company's normal business practice. This also applies if members of the board of directors in exceptional cases carry out remunerated extra tasks for FirstFarms.
3.1.2. It is recommended , that the board of directors annually discuss the company's activities to ensure relevant diversity at management levels and prepare and adopt a policy on diversity. The policy should be published on the company's website.	Complies			FirstFarms seeks to attract the best qualified employees to all management levels. In case of new appointments, the company seeks to attract applicants from as broad a field as possible, including gender and ethnicity. The company has prepared a policy for diversity and inclusion.
3.1.3. It is recommended , that the selection and nomination of candidates for the board of directors is carried out through a careful and transparent process approved by the board of directors. When assessing its composition and nominating new candidates, the board of directors should in addition to the need for competencies and qualifications take into consideration the need for integration of new talent and diversity.	Complies			The board of directors reviews annually, for the board of directors' evaluation up to the general meeting, the need for new competencies to the board of directors and discuss possible nomination of new candidates based on skills, innovation and diversity.
3.1.4. It is recommended , that the notice convening a general meeting where the agenda includes the election of members to the board of directors, include (in addition to	Complies			The members of the board of directors' positions in other executive boards, boards of directors etc. and demanding organisational tasks are presented in the annual report.

3.3. Members of the board of directors and the number of other management functions
3.3.1. It is recommended , that each member of the board of directors assesses the expected time commitment for each function so that the member does not take on more functions than he/she can complete at a satisfactory level for the company.	Complies			FirstFarms' board of directors has almost 100% attendance, and each member of the board of directors annually assesses whether they have the necessary resources for the work in the board.
3.3.2. It is recommended, that the management comments, in additions to the provisions laid down by legislation, includes the following information about the members of the board of directors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the position of the relevant person, • the age and gender of the person in question, • the person's competencies and qualifications that are relevant to the company, • whether the member is considered independent, • the member's date of appointment to the board of directors, • expiry of the current election term, • the member's participation in the meetings of the board of directors and committee meetings, • other management functions, including memberships in executive board, boards of directors, and supervisory boards, including board committees in 	Complies			The recommended information about the board members is incorporated in the annual report.
