

Manager for a modern pig production in Slovakia

Be part of an expanding and professional company, which will give the right candidates interesting and thrilling experiences.

Are you looking to be challenged, as well as growing your experiences, then this might just be the right opportunity for you? FirstFarms acquires and manages agriculture in Eastern Europe. We develop individual farms to modern and sustainable businesses that deliver milk, meat and grains of the highest quality to dinner tables all over the world. We have great working conditions. Many of us have been good colleagues for many years and will continue to be so for years to come. New, good colleagues join because they have heard that we have a great workplace.

This job will give the right person an interesting opportunity to be a part of a professional team with passionate colleagues. The company culture and ambitions provide the best conditions to develop your talent.

Your responsibilities and tasks:

You will have full responsibility for managing a pig production with 2,300 sows and piglets – and two locations with places for 7,500 slaughter pigs. The production has a feed mill and silo capacity for 12,000 tons. You will be manager for 14 employees. It is therefore imperative, that you are able to motivate, teach and train your employees.

Willingness to understand and embrace different cultural and traditional differences is a must. The position implies work and residence in Slovakia. The local area gives plenty of opportunities for an individual or families to live in and explore. It is located close to Bratislava and Vienna.

Our expectations of the ideal candidate:

- Experience from large scale pig production is essential.
- Relevant agricultural education.
- Fluent English, written and spoken. It will be an advantage if you can speak Slovakian/Hungarian.
- Experience in optimising production and procedures.
- To engage with our visions, missions and values.
- See it as a natural thing, that you also need to develop your own skills.
- To motivate and manage employees, to reach our common goals in order to secure the well-being of the employees.
- Be a mentor for our production employees, to increase the general professional level of all areas.
- Calm under pressure, and lead by example. And always keep the overview.

- Good in strategic and daily planning.
- Be part of the local management team together with the COO.
- Engage constructively with our neighbours and local community.

For the right candidate, we offer this exciting opportunity:

FirstFarms is a growing international company with good development opportunities for the right candidate. We offer a rewarding and challenging job, where you will get freedom with responsibility. Professional colleagues and good working environment with collegial respect are something you may look forward to.

Practical issues:

Application date: We take candidates into the recruitment process continuously and fill the position once we have found the right candidate.

Workplace: Gabčíkovo, Slovakia

Please submit your application and CV in English to: tit@firstfarms.com

For further information, please contact Tina Thomsen, FirstFarms; +45 30 94 86 87

All applications will be dealt with in the strictest confidence and in accordance to GDPR.

All interested candidates irrespective of age, gender, race, disability, religion or ethnic background are encouraged to apply.